Once upon a time, there was one girl names Azusa. Azusa did a big knock on the wall until the house was broken. She called the builder to come and fix her house. The builders brought a truck and something to bring the blocks. They worked together to fix the house and finally they live happily ever after. (Sophie)

We need to get something fixed.

Once upon a time, there were three little people got in a car. The car was broken and the wheel was coming off. The little people then called the tow truck. The tow truck pulled the car and brought it to a workshop. There, the mechanic fixed the car. The car was fixed and they lived happily ever after. (Sienna)

We need to be rescued.

Oliver, Keenan, Thomas

We need to have fun.

Aldrich, Catherine

We need to get help.

Felix, Luigi

Once upon a time, there were two boys named Thomas and Felix. They wanted to go to the beach. When they came back from the beach, they saw their house was in fire. They called fireman and then the fireman came to splash the water to put out the fire. The house did not get any fire anymore. (Luigi)

One day, somebody's house was broken and it was not just broken but there was also fire. The owner of the house didn't see the fire so he called the builders. When the builders came, he saw the fire and he called the fire truck. The fire truck put out the fire using water. Then the owner of the house lived happily ever after. (Felix)

We need to stop getting tired
