Hiking and Community service at Bukit Kursi Hill.

We will hike to this famous place in Pemuteran where people go to see sunrise and sunset. We will clean up the route with local people.

Build a water tower

Last year local people, helped by the kind donations of visitors to Bali, planted many trees in the Bukit Kursi Hill. The water tower has an important job as it transfers water to the plantation in the hill when dry season arrives and keeps the tress alive.

We will donate a water tower and build a waterway with pipes to irrigate the trees that have been planted in the hill area. These trees have a very crucial role for greening in the area. Making waterways sourced from the tower that we donate will keep the trees alive and growing.

Learning Objectives:

1. To learn about the natural ecosystem and how nature works in this area.
2. To understand the importance of conserving our natural surroundings
3. To help support the local community

Skill:

1. Hiking and physical activity
