MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD OF SCHOOL

By Mike Miller

CIS survey: Please recall we need a 70% return rate to consider the data as valid and reliable, you may access the survey here. We will use this data to inform us of our upcoming Pathway 2 journey, which focuses on well-being. Thanks in advance.

IB commitments/community events: Unfortunately, I will be attending an IB professional development workshop at the same time as the holiday fair event on Friday December 01st. However, in my absence, please lend your support to the school community by attending this fantastic event on Friday 01st December, from 1445 to approximately 1730. Looking forward to hearing wonderful feedback.

Cultural Discovery Open Houses: In the coming months, Bali Island School would like to hold a series of Open Houses that celebrate and acknowledge the rich culture of Bali, while at the same time, explores the world-class education that Bali Island School offers. We will call these Open Houses "Cultural Discovery Open Houses" which are designed to engage with prospective (not current) families in a unique collaboration of Balinese culture and global learning that defines Bali Island School. We would be extremely grateful to you, our existing and valued parent community, if you could share this information with any of your friends, colleagues or extended family who may be considering an international education. You may share the following link with anyone who you believe may be interested.

Odd Socks Day Celebration Brings Vibrancy and Unity to Bali Island School

Bali Island School was awash with a kaleidoscope of colors and patterns as students celebrated Odd Socks Day on Wednesday, November 15th.

Odd Socks Day, an initiative aimed at embracing individuality and promoting unity, encouraged students to wear mismatched socks. What might seem like a small fashion statement spoke volumes about the school's commitment to fostering a positive environment.

The day commenced with a burst of laughter and chatter as students paraded their unique sock combinations. From stripes paired with polka dots to neon hues contrasting with subtle pastels, the variety was a testament to the diverse personalities and styles within the student body.

Parents played an instrumental role in supporting their children, embracing the spirit of the day by assisting them in selecting the quirkiest sock combinations. The collaborative effort between home and school showcased the collective commitment to creating a warm and inclusive atmosphere.

Amidst the colorful celebration, the school administration also unveiled a significant initiative in support of student well-being. Earlier, students from grades 4 to 12 had actively participated in a comprehensive well-being survey, shedding light on various facets of their school experience.

The amalgamation of Odd Socks Day's exuberance and the forthcoming initiatives derived from the survey results mark a pivotal moment for Bali Island School. It not only reflects the school's dedication to celebrating individuality but also its proactive stance in addressing crucial aspects of student well-being.

English Language & Literature

MYP Grade 6

Grade 6 have been studying Autobiography and Biography this term. Students have examined various extracts from autobiographical writing, such as 'Boy' by Roald Dahl and The Diary of Anne Frank. They have carried out research about a person they admire so that they can write biographically. Here, you can see students researching and presenting to their peers.

MYP Grade 7

Grade 7s have just finished studying 'Haroun and the Sea of Stories', an enchanting fairytale at the heart of which lies a serious and topical issue, the attack on free speech. We are now looking at gothic fiction with the students reading classics such as 'The Tell Tale Heart', Poe's masterpiece of madness and murder.

MYP Grade 8

This term in Grade 8, the students are exploring how experiences have a large impact on an individual's perspective. They began this exploration by discussing the characters in novels in Literature Circles. They are writing personal essays and will soon be starting a podcast for their summative assessment.

MYP Grade 9

This term in Grade 9, the students are exploring how character growth through a close reading of two main characters in the play Macbeth. The students are performing the play in lessons and exploring the language and human insight of Shakespeare.

MYP Grade 10

In Grade 10 we have been learning about journalistic texts, investigating their features, style and layout. Students have studied feature articles, editorials, political cartoons and podcasts, amongst other text types. The end product is to produce a portfolio on Google Sites of effective nonfiction pieces that convey bias.

DP Grade 11

At the beginning of this year, students completed a 'mini Individual Oral', based on a Global Issue of their choice, linked to texts prepared in class (short stories or visual texts). In Term 2 in Standard Level, the students are studying Margaret Atwood's novel The Handmaid's Tale.

In Higher Level this term, the students explored the connections between language and power. The students tried to find answers to some pretty complex questions: What or who gives language power? How does language change impact the meaning and power of language? Who can control the power of a word?

Both classes continued to learn the skills needed for success in the Paper 1 external examination, a guided analysis of an unseen non-literary text.

DP Grade 12 Higher and Standard Level

Grade 12 students have been working diligently to prepare for their Individual Oral examination this term, which is the Internal Assessment component of the English Language and Literature DP course. Now that these are completed, the Higher Level students can focus on their Higher Level Essays whilst the Standard Level students begin revision for the external examinations.

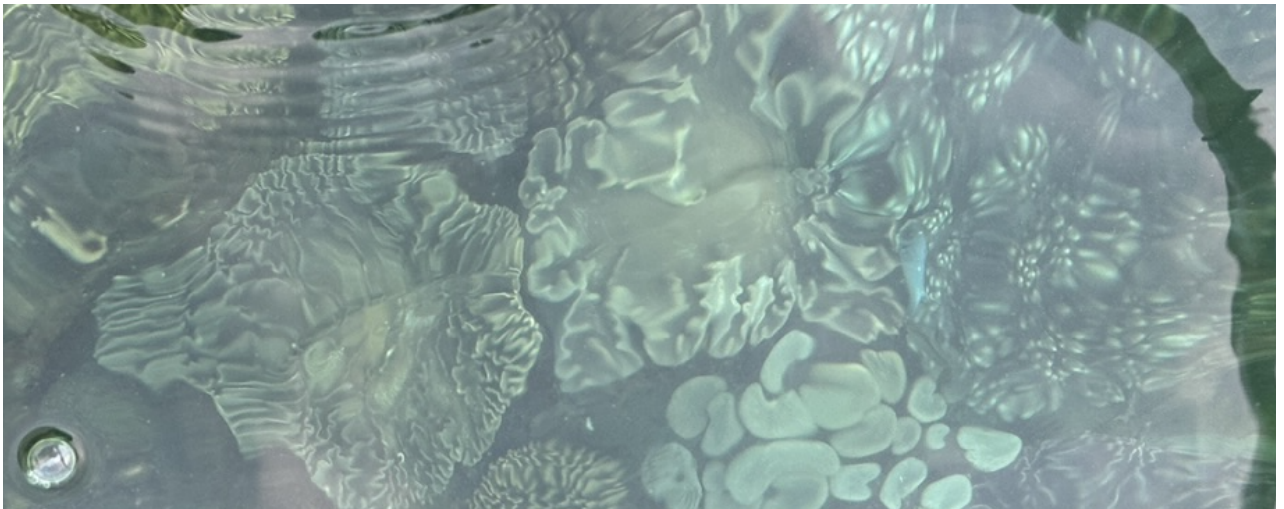

Library Updates

These are some of the new arrivals from the Ubud Writers & Readers Festival for our MYP/DP & Parent readers. We hope to see you in the library next week!

MYP: Service as Action

Last Thursday, eighteen MYP students from various grade levels participated in an afternoon of cleaning a local coral nursery of invasive algae growth. This service work is part of the MYP Service as Action Program which provides students with an opportunity to “make a positive difference in the local community and environment.” Bali Island School is working to collaborate with a local NGO, Ocean Gardners, under the direction of Vincent Chalias to form long-lasting partnerships and relationships with groups involved in service. Future potential projects include; teaching basic marine biology to BIS PYP students, local community schools, planting & clearing local mangroves, and the establishment of our own BIS nursery coral nursery.
